16 Coins

There are 16 coins, all identical except that one is slightly heavier or slightly lighter than the others. Find the counterfeit using 4 weighings on a pan balance with an adaptive solution. You do not have to identify the counterfeit as being too heavy or too light. Use the notation outlined in the coin weighing lecture as shorthand.